

STUDENT WORKSHEET

Q2 • Storytelling • Middle School • Local Hero Interview

Name: _____ Date: _____

You will interview someone you admire, a local hero, to learn about their life and how they help others. A local hero can be anyone who makes a positive difference: a teacher, neighbor, elder, volunteer, or community leader.

Planning Your Interview

Who will you interview? _____

Why did you choose this person?

_____

What do you already know about them?

_____

_____

Preparing Questions

Write 5–7 questions you plan to ask your local hero.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

NEW MEXICO SPIRIT
1776 + 2026

STUDENT WORKSHEET

During the Interview

Use this space to take notes while your hero speaks. Write down things that stand out — quotes, lessons, or memories they share.

---

---

---

Reflecting on the Story

What did you learn from your hero's story?

---

---

What surprised you most?

---

---

How does your hero make a difference in the community?

---

---

Sharing the Story

Summarize your interview in a short paragraph. Tell who your hero is, what they do, and what lesson you learned from them.

---

---

---

---

STUDENT WORKSHEET

Family Connection

Share what you learned with your family. Ask: "Who is a hero in our family or community?" Write their name below and one reason they inspire you.

Their Hero:

---

---

Why are they inspiring:

---

---